

"I OPTED FOR A FREESTANDING BATH TO GIVE US MORE VISUAL SPACE"

"We opted for soft, modern pastel colours to create a sense of calm. A large roof light lets in plenty of light and creates an airy, bright space. We paired pastel colours with a contrasting black Crittall-style shower screen and darkly grouted metro tiles, which we rotated to provide a funky look and a fun monochrome style," says Amy Stoddart.

"Using a calming palette, we addressed the balance of vast space and light, introducing cosy sophistication and purposeful elements of surprise. The layout and functionality were the most important areas of consideration as this bathroom is intended to be shared by two guest bedrooms with an open family area in the immediate vicinity."
